COMMUNICATION TO U.S. PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicant's newly appointed attorney, Ellsworth R. Roston prepared a first preliminary amendment in this application and submitted it to Dr. Terrence A. Tomkow, the applicant, on June 14, 2001 for approval before filing the preliminary amendment in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The first preliminary amendment included new claims 84-183. Applicant's newly appointed attorney, Ellsworth R. Roston, apparently never heard from Dr. Tomkow on this matter but proceeded in the belief that the first preliminary amendment had been filed in the USPTO.

Applicant's newly appointed attorney, Ellsworth R. Roston, thereafter submitted a second preliminary amendment in this application to the USPTO on or about April 2, 2002 and a third preliminary amendment to the USPTO on or about May 30, 2002.

On June 6, 2000, Ms. Livinia Johnson ((703) 308-5229) called Ms. Donna Colon, secretary to Mr. Roston, and indicated to Ms. Colon that the USPTO did not have a copy of the first preliminary amendment. In checking the files, Ms. Colon and Mr. Roston noted that the first preliminary amendment was not filed in the USPTO. Applicant is accordingly filing a copy of the first preliminary amendment in the USPTO. Included with the first preliminary amendment are Exhibits A, B and C.

In addition to filing the first preliminary amendment in the USPTO, applicant is submitting a copy of this amendment directly to Ms. Johnson for inclusion of this amendment in the file at the USPTO. Applicant is also submitting directly to Ms. Johnson a copy of the third preliminary amendment. Applicant is submitting copies of the first and third preliminary amendments directly to Ms. Johnson since Ms. Johnson apparently indicated to Ms. Colon in the
